

AUTHORSHIP, GOOD PRACTICE AND COPYRIGHT TRANSFER STATEMENT

The Editorial Board of the journal reminds authors that the content of all manuscripts must be original and unpublished. All authors of the article must have contributed to the design, performance, and development of the study, and must also have contributed to obtaining the data, interpreting the results, and drafting and revising the manuscript.

The first author signing the article or the author responsible for correspondence must complete this form, following the instructions below. All authors must sign the annex at the end of the document. This signature sheet can be filled in either by electronic signature of all authors or by handwritten signature on the original form which, once signed, will be scanned and attached in PDF format.

If all authors could not sign on a single sheet, the corresponding author must collect all signatures on as many sheets as are needed. Those sheets must be attached to this form.

If you have any questions about this form, please contact the Editorial Board of the Journal at revistavegueta@ulpgc.es
